S057197 In the Matter of the Adoption Petition of Mark and Stacy A.

Mark and Stacy A., Respondents

v.

Elizabeth L., Appellant

The following requests for judicial notice are denied: (1) respondents' request to judicially notice three reports prepared by the Department of Social Services subsequent to the filing of the Court of Appeal opinion and pursuant to its statutorily-mandated investigation in connection with the pending guardianship proceedings; (2) the Department's request to judicially notice the legislative history underlying Senate Bill 792 and the standardized forms ("AD 924" and "AD 926") developed in connection with the adoption statutes that took effect January 1, 1995; (3) the Department's request to judicially notice the trial court's Order After Hearing and Memorandum of Decision (December 3 and 6, 1996) generated in connection with the pending guardianship proceedings; (4) the Department's request to judicially notice a single page of reporter's transcript from the trial court proceedings conducted on February 10, 1997; (5) appellant's request to judicially notice the Department's policy memoranda dated March 13 and November 19, 1996, pertaining to provisions of the adoption statutes that took effect January 1, 1995; (6) appellant's request to judicially notice her "Opposition to Ceasing of Reducing Visitation and Response to Motion for Appointment of Psychologist" filed in the trial court on February 5, 1997 in connection with the pending guardianship proceedings; (7) the Department's request to judicially notice its Reply to the above-noted Opposition filed in the trial court on or about February 10, 1997; and (8) the minor's request to judicially notice an amalgam of transcript pages, Internet material printouts, sanitized orders, and a portion of the unpublished opinion of the Third District Court of Appeal in the matter of In re Alejandria S., C026265 decided in September 1997.

The minor's request to judicially notice the Protective Order issued by the Court of Appeal on September 13, 1996 (Ct. App. A070920)—directing all parties and their attorneys to comply with Family Code section 9200 (pertaining to adoption proceedings) by refraining from releasing any names, addresses, or confidential information in connection with the case except upon written authority of the trial court, and to not allow the minor to have any contact with the print or broadcast media, or provide photographic or videotape images of the minor to such media members—is granted. The parties and their counsel are further reminded to remain in compliance with the statutory provisions providing for the confidentiality of records in guardianship proceedings (Prob. Code, § 1513) and proceedings to free a minor from the custody and control of a natural parent (Fam. Code, § 7805, subd.(b)).

The Department's request to place under seal the three reports prepared in connection with its statutorily-mandated investigation in the pending guardianship proceedings, for which respondents' request for judicial notice has been denied, is granted. Probate Code section 1513 further provides for the confidentiality of said reports.

The application of Professor Joan Heifetz Hollinger to argue pro hac vice is granted on the representation of counsel for respondents that a portion of the time allotted to respondents for oral argument will be ceded to Professor Hollinger for argument on behalf of the groups she represents as amicus curiae.
